

Community Education Event: Housing and Immigration Rights

 TAKHSH LAW, P.C.

discuss current immigration policies

Tuesday, April 11, 2017
6:00pm - 7:30pm
Skokie Public Library
Petty Auditorium
5215 Oakton St.
Skokie, IL 60077

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Neda Nozari, Esq., Director of Fair Housing at Open Communities

Ms. Nozari will focus on housing rights for tenants, landlords, and homeowners, including:

- ~What does housing discrimination look like?
- ~What are your housing rights?

Alén Takhsh, Esq. from Takhsh Law, P.C.

Mr. Takhsh will discuss the latest immigration news and your rights, including:

- ~What should you do if detained by ICE? What forms of immigration relief might be available to you?
- ~How can you best protect your children in case you are ordered removed?

Event is FREE and open to the public

Materials for local organizations will be available

For more information, please call or email Diana Juarez at: 847-568-7611 or djuarez@skokie68.org